

SLEP SUMMER SCHOOL 2020

Fellow 10 Ruth Gallardo

Newborn female patient whose mother had uncontrolled hyperthyroidism diagnosed few months before pregnancy. She was treated with high doses of methimazole (30 mg/day) and propranolol.

She was born at 38 weeks of gestation with weight 3240 gr (p50-97), height 50 cm (p50-97) and head circumference 31cm (<p3). Laboratory samples were taken at 3rd day of life: TSH 3.9uIU/ml, fT4 0.63 ng/dl.